

Editorial:

Continuity in whatever we do, from the biggest to the littlest of things, makes us happy within ourselves and reliable to others. As such, we are delighted that we are able to continue and publish yet another issue of Royal Messenger with more views and contributions from the students and teachers alike. We hope and pray that we will be able to continue doing this again and again and achieve the goals that we set out bit by bit, little by little.

THE PURPOSE

"The whole purpose of education is to turn mirrors into windows". –Sydney J. Harris

Ask any child, "what do you aspire to be when you grow up?". The answers will vary depending on their age and cognition. Some may want to cure sick people, others' may want to serve the country, while some just wants to change the world. But behind every dream and aim is the underlying urge to achieve something in life. To become someone. As teachers, our main motive should be to guide these children to the doors of opportunities. To reflect on the quote by Sydney J. Harris, let us guide these children to see the opportunities through a clear wide window and let them open their own doors. Teachers, let us make them their keys.

5THSEPTEMBER (TEACHERS DAY) 2022

THE IMPORTANCE OF TEACHERS

The light of the world, the beacon in the dark and the hope that gives us the strength to survive is our teachers. They play a very important role in every student's life. They are the source of knowledge and wisdom. As Dr. Abdul Kalam said, "I believe there is no other profession in the world that is more important to society than that of a teacher." Teachers play a very important role in shaping the future of their students. Right from kindergarten to university, they are the one who impart knowledge and teach us about everything important. A world without teachers would definitely be chaotic.

WHAT I LEARNED FROM MY TEACHERS

My teachers, you taught me how to step into the world of light.

You ignited inside me a deep yearning.

To listen, learn and discover many things.

About myself and others through the lessons you taught in class.

You taught me to write.

Teaching me my hands had powers, left or right.

To draw lines and form letters and write numbers.

You taught me how to read.

So I can also spell words you teach easy enough for my mind to reach.

You taught me how to speak properly.

Encourage me when my confidence go weak.

You believe in what I can do.

So in the end I achieve much, not few.

You taught me to love and respect myself.

And do the same for others.

Forever I shall be grateful to you my dear teachers.

Because of you, I am a hopeful and happy learner.

CLASS X DANCE

TEACHERS' DAY

On the 5th September we celebrated Teachers' Day and we had so much fun. The message of our program was: Teachers, thanks for spreading our wings and teaching us to fly. We, the Class VI students, presented a short drama and dance. The theme of our drama is 'Who is the real superhero and who is our real saviour' and the name of the song on which we performed on was 'Jesus is the winner man, Satan is the loser man and we are all on the winning side'. Our junior, that is Class IV students performed a short skit with the moral of the story being: Do not fall in love, focus on your studies. The Class III students also presented a couple walk and dance. Our seniors presented a traditional couple walk. In conclusion, just could not forget this: Do not fall in love, focus on your studies.
